Jones gave an exhibition before the Jury by way of convincing them that he was crazy. He rubbed a piece of tobacco over his face and head and then put it in his sock. After this performance the Jury reached a verdict almost immediately.

THE LEDGER'S BASEBALL FAN!

Points in the Game Played Yesterday Afternoon at Maysville's Handsome New Park.

Now, Bre'r Miller, will you be good? Dam up Niagara Falls with tissue paper; bottle up the Atlantic Ocean in a whisky flask; paste "to let" on the moon; catch a flash of lightning between your thumb and finger; build a fence around a winter supply of summer weather; harness a thunderbolt to a sulky; with a lady's fan; saddle and ride a hurricane; fasten a disrag to the tail of a comet; pack up all the stars in a beer keg; knock a tornado out of time with your fist; put hades to cool in a springhouse; put the sky in your pocket; unbecome the beldabb of eternity; but never, never allow yourself to fancy for a moment that your poor little wonders stand a ghost of a show against our aggregation of hard hitters.

The Locals gave the Ashlanders another fall yesterday afternoon and easily made it three straight.

Miller again won the crowd by his splendid work in the box and was accorded edged support by his field.

Rooney twirled again for the visitors and proved a soft mark for our boys.

There are three errors charged to the Locals, but as they were not productive of runs they go for naught.

After the game all the Ashlanders were frank to confess that they were clearly outclassed.

In the first inning with two out Claggett touched off a single into center and trotted home ahead of Rooney who hit to center for four corners.

Our boys went their one better in their half.

Cox and Curle each sent up a skyrocket for easy outs. Hayes started one towards the river for a triple and scored on McGann's law-mower past second for a bag. Mac pilfered second and scored on Reiman's smash to left for three bases. Tenley sent him over the slab with a screaming single past third. Ray was left as Sutherland did at first.

The home team coralled two more rallies in the second.

Miller missed three good ones and sat down. Mead sent a sky-scraper to center. Welch got under it but let it drop. Kouns fumbled Cox's grounder long enough to allow Ben to reach first. Mead moved up a notch in the meantime. Curle pushed a sultry one past second and Mead ambled home. O'Neill juggled Hayes's grounder and Cox scored. Curle was ambled at second. McGann flew out to Welch and Hayes was left.

The visitors pulled a man around the circuit in the third on singles by Welch and Claggett and a passed ball.

Our boys captured two scores in their half.

Reiman walked and took third on Tenley's single. Rooney threw to Frank, who had slipped in from left field to catch Tenley who was playing away from second, but Frank missed the throw and Reiman and Tenley scampered home.

It was in the fourth when McGann's crew made Rooney wish he was dead.

Curle hit to short but Blackwell missed the assist and Jim was given life. Hayes went out—O'Neill to Blackwell. McGann hit to center for two bases and Curle scored. Reiman singled and Mac scored.

Tenley started another single to left and Reiman scored. Tenley went to third on the throw to the plate to catch Reiman. Sutherland hit to second.

O'Neill played for Tenley, who was digging for home, and missed him. Miller flew out to Welch. Wadsworth hit to Kouns for an out at first.

Maysville added another to their string in the seventh.

Miller hit to left for a triple. Wadsworth hit to short for an out at first and Miller scored.

The Locals chalked up another score in the eighth, and a baker's dozen.

Hayes hit to left for his second triple and scored on McGann's sacrifice.

The visitors came in for their last bat and went out in one, two, three order, and it was all over except the rush for the score.

Yesterday afternoon as the people were returning from the baseball game, the cars stopped on the first switch in the Fifth Ward. One of the old horsecars was on the rear end of the train, which was uncoupled in order that it could be sent back to the barn. In some manner the couplinglink held on to the car in front of it, and James Dunbar, an employee, kicked the link loose, when the rear car ran up and came very near catching him between the two cars. It was a fortunate escape for Jim.

VANCEBURG VAGABOND.

Clubs Trumps in a Recent Ugly Quarrel in That Place.

A special from Vanceburg says a difficulty that will doubtless result in a lamentable tragedy took place at the James Livestock Stable.

Dave James, son of Ham James, the well known politician, became involved in a quarrel with Harry Freeman, son of Captain D. F. Freeman.

James seized a large stick and struck Dave Freeman on the left side of the temporal bone, crushing the skull.

The young man has laid in a comatose state ever since, and it is believed will not live another night.

Young James has not been arrested. He claims Freeman was trying to cut him when he struck.

GOING TO REST.

Miss Carrie Keith Shackelford Died at 3:45 This Morning.

After an illness of four weeks with typhoid fever, Miss Carrie Keith, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shackelford, died at 3:45 o'clock this morning.

Deceased was born February 23d, 1880, and was consequently in her 16th year. She was a devoted member of the M. E. Church, South, and in the daily walks of life none more fully exemplified the teachings of the Master.

A universal favorite with young and old, she will be missed and mourned by an extended circle.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, No. 478 West Second street, at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, with services by the Rev. T. W. Watts of the M. E. Church, South.

PLAYED SHASH.

A Runaway That Might Have Been Much Worse.

Mr. J. Tom Ort and wife were returning to their home at Concord after attending Memorial Services in this city, and when in the neighborhood of Fears their horse ran away.

Mr. Ort had her arm badly hurt by jumping from the buggy.

Mr. Ort escaped serious injury. The horse ran all the way to this city. And the buggy—well, there never was so much buggy scattered along the turnpike before. There wasn't enough of it in one place to make a bonfire for what is left of the Democratic party.

LEXINGTON SHORTAGES.

Collectors Hustling to Find Money to Make Up Losses.

A Lexington special says it was reported that only one-half of the life insurance of the late W. P. Welch, the Deputy under ex-City Collector Davidson and under the present Collector, Captain S. G. Sharp, had been left to his estate and the other half had been left to his wife.

Upon further investigation it turns out that he left all of his straight life insurance, $25,000, to his estate, and that all he left his wife individually was the $5,000 accident insurance, carrying with it a $10 per week indemnity.

Thus the Collectors, if it can be proved that Welch was the peculator, will be able to levy on the $25,000, but no more.

AT MANCHESTER.

The Fire Meetings Are a Great Blessing to That Place.

The revival in religion that Evangelist Fife has started at Manchester is something out of the ordinary for that town. Last Sunday Mr. Fife preached five times, and still there were some who didn't get to hear him.

Most of not all the business houses of the town remain closed during the hours of service each day, thus giving the business men and their employees an opportunity to attend the meetings, which opportunity is almost universally embraced.

The meetings continue to grow in interest, and fully two hundred people have publicly expressed a determination to do better in the future than they have done in the past.

The Manchester Signal has this to say: "If the walls of Satan and sin are not cast down in this community, it will certainly not be from lack of effort on the part of W. P. Fife and assistants, but must be assigned to some other cause."
